Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of 13 March requesting that Mr. James Lilley and [redacted] National Intelligence Officers, take part in a panel discussion on developments in the East Asia region on 17 March. I understand that the International Relations Committee plans to hold monthly briefing sessions on that area.

25X1

I am pleased to make them available to the Committee because I believe that their participation, along with other experts, will result in a broader understanding of that part of our world. In addition, we will cooperate with the Committee in making other Agency experts available as appropriate.

Please contact our Office of Legislative Counsel to let us know which regions will be discussed in any future briefings.

Yours sincerely,
/s/ Stansfield Turner
